

name: _____

Write the following terms and phrases next to the text/tradition that they are most closely associated with:

Mahabharata	yajna	kirtan	forest retreat
pranayama	lila	tattva	kaivalya
brahman	murti	drashtir	brahmin

Vedic religion yajna, brahmin

The Upanishads forest retreat, brahman

Samkhya tattva

The Yoga Sutras pranayama, kaivalya, drashtir

The Bhagavad Gita Mahabharata

Bhakti kirtan, lila, murti

Choose two of the texts or traditions listed above that emphasize a divine presence within. Write ONE sentence that describes that presence.

The Upanishads teach that the inner self or atman is the foundational matrix of being, or Brahman.

The Yoga Sutras teach that the inner self is the witness, or drashtir.

Choose two of the texts or traditions listed above that emphasize making offerings to the divine. Write ONE sentence for each describing how these offerings are made.

In the Vedic fire ceremony or yajna, precious offerings to the gods are made into the sacred fire.

In the Bhagavad Gita Lord Krishna teaches Arjuna to offer every action to the Lord.